Armed Forces

Army Pfc. Jerome Thornell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence C. Thornell, 18314 Avis Ave., recently participated in a seven-day combat readiness test near Ft. Greeley, Alaska.

Thornell is a policeman in the Yukon Command's Headquarters Company, which is regularly stationed at Ft. Wainwright, more than 100 miles southeast of Ft. Greeley. He entered the Army in January 1961, completed basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif., and arrived in Alaska last May.

The 19-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of North High School.

Army Pfc. Jesse D. Jenkins, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Jenkins, 249 Paseo De Las Delicias, recently participated in a seven-day combat readiness test near Ft. Greeley, Alaska.

During the test, which was designed to determine the individual and unit combat efficiency of Army units in Alaska, the 9th Infantry and various support units engaged in simulated combat maneuvers against an "Aggressor" force from the 23rd Infantry. Ft. Greeley, the Army's northernmost post, is noted for its sub-zero temperatures and for the mountains and glaciers which surround it.

Jenkins is an automatic rifleman in Company B of the 9th Infantry, which is stationed at Ft. Wainwright, more than 100 miles southeast of Ft. Greeley.

He entered the Army in September 1960, received basic training at Ft. Ord, Calif., and arrived in Alaska in February 1961.

Jenkins is a 1955 graduate of Redondo Union High School and attended El Camino Junior College. His wife, Clarita, is with him in Alaska.

Pfc. Richard P. Carbajal, 22, son of Mrs. Viola Lacy, 1424 W. 218th St., recently passed the Army's new physical combat proficiency test in Germany.

The test, based on skills which require agility, coordination, strength and endurance, is designed to evaluate a soldier's physical capabilities and to determine whether an individual possesses the stamina which would be needed on a battlefield.

Carbajal, a gunner in Company E of the 8th Division's 505th Infantry in Mainz, entered the Army in June 1958 and arrived overseas in January 1959.

He is a 1958 graduate of St. Mary's High School in Phoenix, Ariz.

Army Pfc. Lyle L. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mitchell, 230 Calle Miramar, is a member of the 8th Infantry Division's 12th Artillery which recently returned to its home station in Baumholder, Germany, after some four months of bolstering the Allied garrison in West Berlin.

Mitchell and other members of the artillery were ordered to the beleaguered city in August and traveled through Soviet-controlled East Berlin in U.S. Army vehicles. The 12th has been replaced by the 24th Infantry Division's 13th Artillery.

A cannoner in the artillery's Battery A, he entered the Army in October 1959, completed basic training at Ft. Ord, and arrived overseas last January.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1959 graduate of Junipero Serra High School in Gardena.

Airman Basic Michael G. Cordes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley G. Cordes of 3338 Newton, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for air armament and gunnery specialists at Lowry AFB, Colo.

Airman Cordes, who has completed his basic military training at Lackland AFB, Tex., was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

The airman is a graduate of South Torrance High School.

Richard L. Gomez, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gomez of 3224 Winlock Rd., is serving aboard the destroyer USS Mulany, which left its San Diego home port Jan. 6.

During its six months away from the U.S., the ship will operate with the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.
